

CLAYTON COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE

TALK OF THE TOWN

www.claytonsheriff.com

DECEMBER 2010

Divine Faith Ministries Honors Law Enforcement Leaders

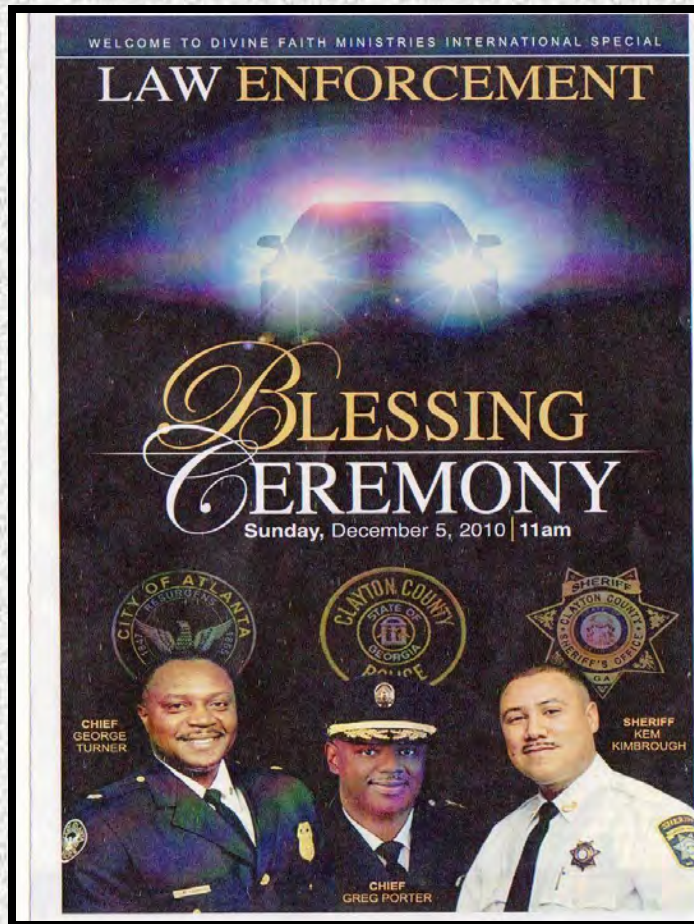

Pastor David E. Battle hosted a very special Blessing Ceremony to honor Sheriff Kimbrough, Chief Turner and Chief Porter.

Chairman Bell, Mayor Dixon, Chief Watkins and Solicitor Mosely were in attendance.

Members of the three agencies represented Color Guard opened the ceremony, the church liturgical dancers performed followed by communion and blessing of the three honorees.

You may view the picture spread of the honorees at:

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=RmLxhFzz0-U>

HAPPY HOLIDAYS FROM OUR FAMILY TO YOURS

‘Put Down The Guns’

On December 21st, 2010, Pastor Waddy of Greater St. Peter AME Church in Jonesboro held a press conference in response to last year’s tragic events due to celebratory gun fire.

Last year during New Year’s Eve night service, shots were fired at the church. Bullets broke through the walls and one landed just three feet away from Pastor Waddy’s wife. In Dekalb county, a similar incident ended with the life of a child being taken.

“Bullets in air, must land somewhere” the group chanted.

Sheriff Kimbrough is calling on responsible youth and adults to encourage others to “put down the guns”. Other guest speakers were Michael Daniels, Executive Director for Youth Connections Inc., Pastor David Harris of Turner Ministries, and Senator Elect Gail Davenport.

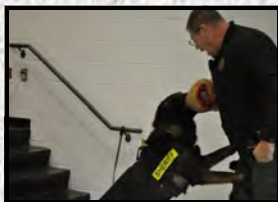

Pastor Waddy

County Wide Joint Holiday Events

Throughout this holiday season, community leaders have joined together to give back to the citizens of Clayton County. The Clayton County Sheriff’s Office hosted, participated in as well as sponsored several of these events

Pictured above: 2010 Commisioners Holiday Toy Drive

Sisters In Action, Holidays Around the World Event

